Freelance Video Editing Experience

Since the start of 2017, I have been working as a freelancer both directly for clients as a subcontractor to agencies. I have experience of working on a diverse range of timescales from short turnaround editing (same day shoot and publish) right through to multi-week projects. I am happy working in a team or on my own.

Solo Work

- Paul McKenna (2017 – 2019) – Celebrity hypnotist and motivational speaker
  - “I Can Make You Thin” – Re-editing of DVD content for online use.
  - Creating a showreel based on footage of his motivational speaking
  - Editing of a 90 minute video to document an NLP seminar featuring Paul along with Richard Bandler. Edited over a couple of months with BAFTA award winning producer Tony Nicholson.
- Digital Leadership Forum (2019) – Networking events and conferences on digital transformation, AI and other cutting edge topics.
  - Creation of social media shorts and event videos
  - Editing interviews with leading technologists explaining concepts for industry decision makers
- Glyndebourne Opera House (2019) – World renowned opera venue, known for its novel takes on classics and its summer festival.
  - Working with in-house team to create videos (including behind the scenes coverage and interviews) to promote the festival on social media and their website
  - Making advertisements for Glyndebourne Opera Cup
  - Editing bonus content for members area of website

Agency Work

Work for agencies including 23 Digital (2017 – 2019), Pegasus (2019). Selected examples include:

- Unibet – Coverage of live events as well as focussed videos introducing poker ambassadors. Media for YouTube, Facebook and Twitter.

- PartyPoker – Coverage of live events and social media shorts for release in between tournaments to maintain interest.
- Martlets Hospice – Social media shorts outlining charitable fundraising events, also assisted on their brand film
- BetBright – Interviews with Phil Tufnell and Ken Doherty, edited into various shorts.
- Green Growth Platform/Muon Events – Videos covering events which focus on sustainability
- Holmes Report – Event coverage videos for a leading publisher of PR news and analysis.
- Design Brighton – Producing videos in the lead up to Brighton’s new architecture festival.

In the course of my work with 23 Digital, I also assisted as second camera operator and other supporting roles as needed for events. I helped to produce targeted showreels and other marketing media for 23 Digital’s own promotional use, including a showreel to promote their aerial drone services.

Other Relevant Experience

- Location Assistant (2019) – Crackit Productions, Hove – Location assistant on shoots for two television programmes This involved sourcing props, data wrangling, obtaining completed release forms, managing cash float and assisting the camera crew with setting up kit etc.
- Video Editor and Runner (2017) – East Studios, Brighton – Hands on video editor for the week running up to a live stream on Twitch. Produced VT to be used during the stream and sourced images and produced short VT to be used with green screen. Also assisted as a runner on the day of the live stream.
- Edit Assistant and Runner (2012) – Toasted Productions, Manchester – I worked as a runner for the duration of the Manchester International Festival. This included monitoring audio and camera work. I was involved in getting vox pops after events and worked as editing assistant to put together rough cuts.
- I have non-relevant experience in customer service and hospitality from before I started my career in editing. Further details available on request.
